

ABOUT ME

My name is Ishmael Ali and below you will find out a little bit about me so stick around and you might deep some interesting facts about me if you like reading.

HOBBIES

I enjoy playing football and hockey and I like socialising with family and friends. Also, I have a custom-built gaming PC that I love playing on and from time to time I change parts of the components and fit them in with new parts, I do also create posters and websites for entertainment.

CAREER PROSPECTS

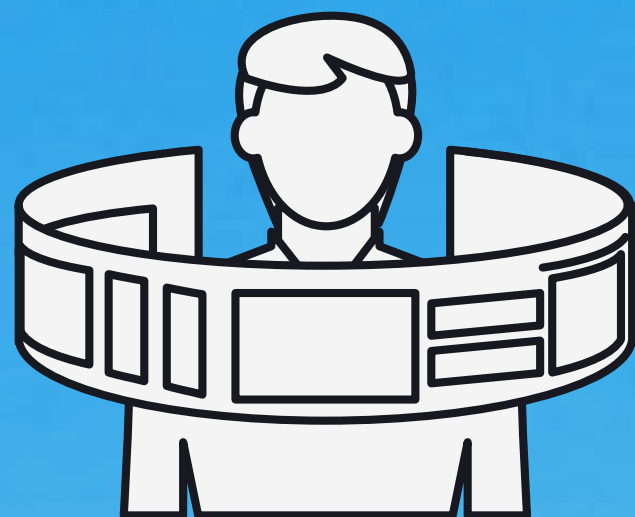

I want to leant a variety of skills and also gain a huge amount of knowledge in digital marketing so I can make an impact on companies.

"DREAMS DON'T WORK UNLESS YOU DO"

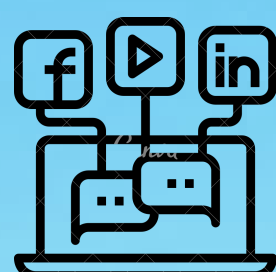

Future

I would like to be a social media marketer that attracts high numbers of internet followers to businesses through Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube.

Current position

I am currently doing work experience as a digital marketer and is working alongside an expert in digital marketing.

Goals

To be able to achieve my goal which is becoming a digital marketer I will need to obtain many skills and knowledge so that businesses will not regret their decision on hiring me.

Education

I have a decent amount of both knowledge and skills that are required for a digital marketer and this is from my work experience and previous studies through college. I have received many awards and certificates so overall i am proud to be the person i am today.

